An Introduction to New Media

Presented by Sarah Amazing, Teen Services Supervisor
Warren-Trumbull County Public Library

Before we begin...

What is new media?

Anything that challenges the established, traditional media model(s)

What is new media?

- Podcasts
- YouTube
- Twitch.tv
- Facebook Watch
- Hulu, Amazon Prime, Netflix
- Original cable series
- VRV & others...

Why is it important?

Community

- Direct connection to fans
 - ‘Friendship simulator’
- Charity
- Fan creations
- Quickly adapt to what works
- Connected to all social media

Why is it important?

Disruption & change across the industries
(ie, comedy & music)

- Affecting advertising
 - Patreon & other fan-supported models
- Lots of creativity and different content

Because it's the newest of the three we're discussing, it will be interesting to see where creators take this platform.

YouTube

The image shows a screenshot of the YouTube homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the YouTube logo, a search bar, and a 'SIGN IN' button. Below the navigation bar is a sidebar with menu options: Home, Trending, History, and a 'BEST OF YOUTUBE' section with icons for Music, Sports, Gaming, Movies, TV Shows, News, and Live. The main content area is divided into two sections: 'Trending' and 'Recommended'. The 'Trending' section features five video thumbnails with titles, view counts, and upload times. The 'Recommended' section features five video thumbnails with titles, view counts, and upload times. The interface is clean and modern, with a white background and blue accents.

YouTube

Where to begin?

YouTube

Some basics:

- Began in November 2005
- Over a billion users¹ (1/3 of people with Internet)
- Approximately 50 million active channels²
- In 2016, 2000 accounts with over a million subscribers³
- 300 hours of content uploaded each minute²
- In 88 countries, with content in 76 languages¹
- More 18-49 year olds than any cable network¹
- More than half of views come from mobile devices¹

1: Youtube for Press, <https://www.youtube.com/yt/about/press>

2: Sidekick Collab, August 4, 2017, <https://sidekickcollab.com/how-many-youtube-channels-are-there>

3: Tube Filter, April 4, 2016, <http://www.tubefilter.com/2016/04/04/youtube-millionaires-2000-channels/>

YouTube

- Individual creators vs networks (even Disney has one!)
- Subscriptions & views tied to advertising money
- Lots of collaboration; no competition
- Fan creations (compilations, songs, best-ofs, animations); sometimes it gets them a job!
- Growing pains & confusion
 - ADPOCALYPSE
 - Is it censorship?
 - NEW YouTube Kids app

Lots of 'illegal' content; let's focus on the original stuff!

Rooster Teeth

HOW DID WE BEGIN?

In 2003 a group of guys in a spare bedroom in Austin created a company called Rooster Teeth. They noticed a gap in content that appealed to a new generation who didn't grow up watching cable TV. In 2003 we launched Red vs Blue, the longest running web-series and from there we took off. We now have broadcast shows, gameplay content, movies, events, and so much more. Over all of these years, our audience has grown to have over 35 million engaged fans. From a spare bedroom to a massive professional production studio and offices in multiple cities, Rooster Teeth is positioned at the center of this massive cultural shift in entertainment viewing and technology adoption.

THE POWER OF COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

From when we first started, we've been building an engaged community of fans. Our fans are committed to our brand and incredibly supportive of all of our ambitious projects. Over the course of 14 years, we've done incredible things together.

Over the weekend a video of Pewdiepie dropping the n-bomb casually while playing Battlegrounds, leading Firewatch developer Campo Santo to ban him from doing videos in their games, even DMCAing a previous video. That's riled up the conversation around let's plays, streams, and fair use... and not necessarily in gamers' favor.

I'm Andrew, a producer of many songs and many videos.

I post musical videos every Monday and Thursday, and by pledging $1 per week you'll help me to keep creating new and better things. In return I'll send you all the music I release for however long you remain a patron - usually around 100 songs a year! There are also other rewards you can find out more about on the right.

You also get a lot of music right away. As soon as you become a patron you'll be taken to a page with links for Patreon-exclusive music downloads, including some of my bigger YouTube singles and my gigantic b-sides compilation Abandon which in itself is 1,426 tracks and 53 hours long.
